

PUBLISHED DAILY & TRI-WEEKLY BY EDGAR SNOWDEN.

TURSDAY EVENING, NOV'R. 15, 1851.

While the democratic members of the Gentral Assembly should oppose no factious opposition, and resort to no dilstory measures to obstruct legislation, they should on every and all cocciosa strive and protest against the adeption of any measure that may be calculated to i. c. case the injury the radical reguliators base already is fleed upon the credit and fair name of Virginia. Let them make it plain to the world that though all the negroes within the limi a of the State, aided by the entire republican party of the country, have availed themselves of the assistance of a few apostate Vir-Liaines to rain and disgrace the ones proud old Commonwiplth, her true and loyal sons defended bas to the last, and only went down, like their fathers and brothers did at Appointtion, before the irresistible force of overwhelming numbers.

The quesion of the wholesomeness of late support, which was revived some time ago by the New York Journal of Commerce, seems to be altineing to little attention. As men is only no educated animal, and as all other animals strive to fill their stomache before going to sleep, there eso be no doubt about the cor r cincar of an affirmative answer. The only reason why a doubt upon the subject was left the ciry. It is also said that previous to such suppers usually consist of wet as well a place in one of the departments here.

The Senate Commission of the former has releved. as dry provisions. If the former be emitted no one will tise in the morning the werse for having cated a hearty supper immediately before going to bid, and it will be the same whether the supper be taken at seven o'clock at right or in the small hours of the morning, rr vided an equal length of time be deveted

The littleness of Mr. James is as apparent to all men as it is to Mr. Corkling, who told him "ne was not made of the stuff that formed heroes." In the little hamlet of Shackelford King and Queen county, Virginia, the postmarter was recently removed to make place for a repudiator who had no house of his own in which to establish the postcilice. The removed officer very naturally refused to rent a room in bis own house to his successor, and because nobody else in the hamlet was willing to it convenience linself to the extent of admitting a disagreeable person to the privileges of his house, for their mail.

The present Commissioners of the District of Columbia were always supposed to be good and efficient officers until the ex fraudulent President wrote a letter endorsing their probity and competency. That he has done within the last two weeks, and sixes then, though never before, many people have begun to look upon the commissioners with suspicious eyes.

As there is no fourth Monday in this month, this year, the Fourd of State Canvassers will have to adopt the 'old style' in order to conform to the law requiring them to meet on that day. But as they have as much right to revert to that style as Julius Courr had to establish it, or as Gregory XIII. had to change it, there need be no trouble about the matter.

General Mahone's home organ says "the resdjusters have men in their ranks who are of the greatest legal attainments." These words will do to compare with the facts when the Court of Appeals thall have been reorganized. After the election of the city and county judges nobody will believe them without proof.

The spoils

- A meeting of leading readjusters will be held in Richmond on Monday next, at which the question as to the Senatorship and the vacancies to be created on the beach of the Supreme Court of Appeals will be discussed.

A special disputch says: "Indications seem to point to Riddleberger as the strongest espirant for the Senatorship. Mahone's closest friends say that he will not scoopt a Cabiget friends say that he will not scoupt a Cabinet is in possession of decumentary evidence of place if tendered bim. It is said that Mahone recently said that a contingency may eccar over the struggle for severa chills. A surgeon was sent for, who on the Senatorship in which all the readjuster examination found him trembling and utterly m mbers of the Legislature will not set harmeniously. From elear understandings had with all readjuster candidates for that body during the canvass, it is hardly possible for such an emergerey to srist.

There seems to be ac impression that the dominant party in this State wil find it difficult to sceare a sufficient number of good lawgere for their own eids to put on the bench of the Supreme Court of Appeels. This is a mistake. Beveral promitest members of the legel profeerion have indicated, it is said, a willingnies to accept these positions of judicial trust. Mahone has gen, to New York, to be absent

A good deal of chancery business was transacted, but owing to the fact that the Clerk of the Court and the Shoriff of the county, one a democrat and the other a readjuster, in their excitement over the election, forgot to summon a jury, all the common law causes had to be continued until the

The New York Stock Exchange was the scene of great excitement just previous to the close of business yesterday when the room was flooded with rumors of an unfavorable and rather startling nature. It was reported that the Trades-men's Bank, of this city was in trouble; that a large dry good's house had failed; that a Phila-delphia bank was embarrassed; that a prominent bank president was dying, and that a rail-way magnate had been assassinated. All of these proved to be unfounded, but they had the intended effect of depressing the market.

lows:-Best Beeves ..

The market to-lay has shown much firmness, and was fully as active as last week. Prices, quality considered, were quite as high as they were last Monday. they were inst week.

Sheep and Lamba.—The number of the offer.
